From the Master's Desk

First of all, let me express what an honor it is to have been chosen Master of this august body and thank you for your confidence and kindnesses. I want also to express my gratitude to the officers who have agreed to serve this year. I want again to express the Lodge's and my personal thanks to South Plains Lodge No. 1443 for hosting our Lubbock meeting in March in conjunction with the Grand Master's conference and to our principal installing officers, PGMs and FMRs Mike Wiggins and Reese Harrison, who kept us on point in a tight time window.

Texas Lodge of Research is generally recognized as one of the premier lodges in the state and one of the premier research lodges in the country. We have big shoes to fill and a few pressing tasks.

Among our chores this year are getting our publications back on track, updating and reorganizing the website, improving the Occasional Bulletin, and at least one Bylaws change.

With respect to the Occasional Bulletin, we are looking for a new editor who can and will devote the time and energy needed to produce a quality instrument. The brother should understand layout and be able to find items of interest, either from our own members or from other research jurisdictions, that are of value to our members. Past Master Moore has done a yeoman's job despite other more pressing responsibilities. It has been many years since we have had an editor who did not also have other responsibilities to this Lodge. Consequently, we are looking for someone to edit the OB as more or less their principal task within TLR. If you believe that you have the ability, are willing to devote the time, and are interested in finding and communicating news and items of interest to our members, please contact me.

Our June meeting will be hosted by Dallas Lodge No. 760 in Dallas, Texas, on June 18. The hosting hotel is the Courtyard by Marriott Dallas Addison/Midway, 4165 Proton Drive, Addison, TX 75001, near the lodge. You may reserve a room by following this link by June 10: tinyurl.com/3mp74dm7. The room rate is $94.00 plus tax. As usual, we will have a hospitality room and a no-host dinner on Friday evening. The business meeting will be held the next morning, with lunch and any papers ready for presentation to follow. We will continue a practice reintroduced by Past Master Moore last year of presenting the Anson Jones Lecture at an evening banquet. Our Lecturer will be D. Allen Surratt of North Carolina, currently the Most Illustrious Grand Sovereign of The United Grand Imperial Council of Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine and Appendant Orders for the United States of America, Mexico, and the Philippines. I hope that you will join me in welcoming Ill. Bro. Surratt to Texas. It looks to be a stimulating evening. Details to follow via MailChimp.

I want to encourage you to consider writing a research paper. The communication of thoughtful and well documented ideas is the lifeblood of this Lodge, indeed of the Fraternity. Anyone can do it.

With your help, this should be a successful year for TLR as we emerge fully from the shadow of the pandemic, and I look forward to seeing you in Dallas.

Fraternally,
Richard Schlaudroff, WM
